

to what amount; to provide for collecting and paying over the amount of compensation adjudged to each person entitled, or investing it, in the discretion of the corporation, in some stock or otherwise, bearing an interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, for the use of any such persons who, because of their infancy, absence from the city, or any other cause, may be prevented from receiving it, before any street, lane or alley, in whole or in part, shall be so opened, extended, widened, straightened or closed up; to provide for the collection of the amounts adjudged to be paid by the owners or possessors, who may be benefited by the opening, widening, extension, straightening or closing up, in whole or in part, of any street, lane or alley in the city; and to enact and pass all ordinances from time to time which shall be deemed necessary and proper to exercise the powers and effect the objects above specified.

1870, ch. 298.

243. Before they shall pass any ordinance under the preceding section, notice shall be given of any application for the passage of such ordinance once a week for four successive weeks in one of the newspapers published in said city; and before any commissioners appointed by any ordinance of said corporation under this and the preceding section, shall proceed to the performance of their duty, they shall give notice in at least one of the newspapers published in said city, of the object of the ordinance under which they propose to act, at least two weeks before the time of their first meeting to execute the same.

1868, ch 87.

244. It shall and may be lawful for the mayor and aldermen to borrow, on the faith and credit of the corporation of Frederick, a sufficient amount of money to pay for the condemnation of all lands necessary for the introduction of an additional quantity of water, and for the cost of such introduction of water into the city; also, to pay for all property condemned for the erection of markets, and the cost of the building and erection of suitable market houses, and also to pay for all property condemned for the purpose of opening or widening any streets, lanes or alleys within the city of Frederick, with full power to issue bonds in